

Bylaws of the Up with People Swiss Alumni Association

Preamble

Up with People (UWP) is an independent, international, non-profit educational organisation that is not affiliated with any religion, political group or government. Its purpose is to bring the world together through friendship and understanding.

The UWPSAA is the Swiss association of former Up with People participants. Our purpose is to ensure the communication among the members of the UWPSAA and other alumni in Switzerland and worldwide as well as to cultivate companionship and sociability within the UWPSAA. We also counsel and support Up with People participants before their departure and after their return.

1. Name & Seat

Under the name Up with People Swiss Alumni Association (UWPSAA) exists a politically and denominationally neutral association in accordance with the Swiss Civil Code (ZGB) article 60ff with the seat according to ZGB article 56.

2. Purpose

- 2.1 To ensure communication between Up with People, the Up with People International Alumni Association (UWPIAA), Alumni in general and the UWPSAA.
- 2.2 To improve and ensure communication among the members of the UWPSAA and other Alumni

- 7.4 Extraordinary Income: Consists of income from special events that are relevant to the purpose of the association. Also included is interest collected from the association's assets and other unique earnings.
- 7.5 Utilisation
- 7.5.1 Continuous Business Expenses (Club Expenses): For the dealings of all club business, each member of the Board may spend up to CHF 100.00 with approval from the Treasurer. Expenses up to CHF 1'000.00 must be approved by the Board and the expenses over CHF 1'000.00 must be approved by the General Assembly.
- 7.5.2 Annual Contribution to the Up with People International Alumni Association: An annual amount of max. 20% of the received membership fees is contributed to the UWPIAA by the end of the operational year. The amount is defined according to the needs of the UWPIAA and can also be transferred directly to a representative of the UWPIAA, for instance the European representative(s).
- 7.5.3 Special Contributions and Expenses: Special contributions and expenses, which must be suitable to the purpose of the association, will be decided upon by the General Assembly.
- 7.6 Profit: In the event of a positive closure of the accounts, the profit will be carried forward to the following operational year. The General Assembly decides on the uses of any profit: transfer to the equity or to any funds of the association.

8. Liability

- 8.1 The association's assets shall be adhered to exclusively for all liabilities of the club. Every personal liability of the members is excluded, except in cases of civil wrong.
- 8.2 Liability of Members: The members as well as third parties participate in all UWPSAA events and activities at their own risk. Insurance is up to the participants.

9. Dissolution

- 9.1 Decision of Dissolution: A dissolution of the association or an amalgamation with another club can only be decided on by a two third majority vote by the General Assembly. If there isn't a two third majority vote, another meeting must be called within one month. Regardless of the number of participants at this meeting, the motion of the association's dissolution will be decided upon again by a majority.
- 9.2 Liquidation: If the decision has been made to disband, the Board has the task to liquidate the association within three months in accordance with the legal regulations. Club assets, if any are to hand, will go either to the UWPIAA, be shared between other Alumni clubs or be used to sponsor future Up with People students (Eastern Europe or third world countries). This must happen within two years of the final decision to disband. If within this time period, a new association with the same objectives is founded in Switzerland, this new association may take over the club assets.

10. Final Regulation

Every member of the UWPSAA will upon request receive a copy of the club bylaws when joining the association.

These bylaws have been accepted by the General Assembly on 28th October 2017 and become effective immediately. They therefore replace the previous bylaws from 30th September 2006.
